

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

(Local Form 12/05 lrb)

Northeastern Division—District of North DakotaORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL*United States of America vs. Jonathan Robertson Case No. 2:06-cr-75

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of defendant pending trial in this case.

PART I—FINDINGS OF FACT

☐ Alternative A – Both of the following facts are present:

- ☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that defendant has committed an offense
 - ☐ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. § 801 et seq.
 - ☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c), § 956(a), or § 2332b.
- ☐ (2) Defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding (1) that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of the community.

☐ Alternative B – One or both of the following facts are present:

- ☐ (1) There is a serious risk that defendant will not appear.
- ☐ (2) There is a serious risk that defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

X Alternative C – One of the following facts is present:

- X (1) Defendant does not contest detention at this time.
- ☐ (2) Defendant is ineligible for release at this time.

PART II—WRITTEN STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that an August 3, 2006 Order Setting Conditions of Release required that Jonathan Robertson reside at Centre, Inc., and his father had agreed to transport him from Grand Forks to Fargo on that date. Mr. Robertson did not report to Centre, Inc. as he had been directed to do. This Court finds there is no condition or combination of conditions which would reasonably assure his appearance at future proceedings.

PART III—DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

Dated this 11th day of August, 2006.
